

William Fevre*2013 Chablis*France > Burgundy > Chablis

Combining lovely fruitiness with an attractive freshness and characteristic minerality, Chablis is a wine region with global renown. Domaine William Fèvre's vineyards sit on Kimmeridgian subsoil and enjoy ideal exposures for the production of a very fine wine. Very elegant bouquet, developing citrus, white-fleshed fruit and floral notes. Fresh and supple, the wine is marked by mineral notes that are typical of the appellation.

Closure: Cork Alcohol: 12.5%

Bouchard Pere & Fils 2013 Pouilly-Fuisse*France > Burgundy > Mâcon

The star of the Mâcon appellations lies at the foot of the Solutré and Vergisson crags that rise into the sky like two immense bows of a ship. Pouilly-Fuisse should not be confused with Pouilly Fumé - which is a wine from the Loire region. Connoisseurs like Pouilly-Fuisse for its elegance and lively, silky texture. Enticing aromas and flavors of peach apple, lemon and mineral enhance this harmonious white.

Closure: Cork Alcohol: 13.0%

Villa Ponciago 2012 Fleurie*France > Burgundy > Beaujolais

Even though Beaujolais is technically part of Burgundy, its climate, soil, grape varieties and winemaking methods make it completely separate in character. The grape in this wine is 100% Gamay and develops pronounced notes of cherry and blueberry along with violets and peonies. On the palate, the wine evokes mineral tones balanced by a pleasing fruit ripeness. The finish is enhanced by delicate spicy touches with remarkable length.

Closure: Cork Alcohol: 12.5%

Bouchard Pere & Fils 2013 Bourgogne Reserve (Pinot Noir)*France > Burgundy

This wine exhibits the characteristics of the great red Burgundies. Traditional fermentation is in open vats and aged for 10 -12 months in stainless steel. The 2013 has a bright ruby color. The nose reveals notes of cassis, licorice and raspberries. The mouth is round with cherry aromas and mellow tannins.

Closure: Cork Alcohol: 12.5%

Louis Latour 2011 Marsannay Rouge (Pinot Noir)*France > Burgundy > Cote D'Or

Marsannay is the village which marks the northern gateway to the Côte d'Or. Wines from Marsannay are generally lively and robust; characteristics that come from the rich iron soil. Marsannay received its Appellation Contrôlée as recently as 1987 in recognition of the consistently high quality of its wine. The nose is floral with notes of peony, iris and clove. This wine reveals blackcurrant and spicy aromas with elegant tannins on the finish. Aged 10 to 12 months in stainless steel vats. 100% Pinot Noir.

Closure: Cork Alcohol: 13.0%

Bouchard Pere & Fils 2010 Beaune du Chateau Premier Cru Pinot Noir*France > Burgundy > Cote d'Or

Light red, clear color. Nose with ripe strawberries and some cherries including a hint of candied cherries, spice and flowery notes, hints of mineral and soil, and a bit of well integrated oak. Medium bodied with strawberries, cherries, and cranberries, good acidity, some mineral and spice notes. Shows mild tannins, and a balanced finish with berries and mineral.

Closure: Cork Alcohol: 13.5%